ASP Theology

Developed by Tex Evans

- We rejoice in the gift of life, consider it to be possible only through the goodness, and the wisdom, and the power of God.

- We count ourselves to be Christians, even saying with Polycarp of old: "I worship the one true God and His Son I follow!"

- We see all people as our brothers and sisters, made in the image of God, having intelligence, a will, freedom, a sense of beauty, compassion, a sense of values, and creativity.

- We hold that every person wants, essentially, four things: to be loved, to belong, to own something, to create something worthwhile.

- We go to our brothers and sisters and we accept them right where they are, just the way they are. Earnestly, we seek to bear witness to awareness, concern, hope and helpfulness-Christian Love!

- We count ourselves fortunate indeed, in our own opportunities, and seek to give a good account of our stewardship.

- We seek to work in glad cooperation and mutual support with other workers being prepared to keep sensitive and helpful according to the needs of the hour.

- Gladly, do we serve Him who said in the fourth chapter of Luke, "He has sent me to set at liberty those who are oppressed and to open the doors of the captive."
